Apply to join on our talent roster.
You'll be required to pass our video interview and code-test processes.

Upon acceptance onto our roster, we'll work with you to build you a candidate profile and work to match you with clients seeking your specific skillset.

Once a client expresses interest in your candidate profile, we'll arrange for interviews directly with the client. Our clients include cutting-edge technology companies and major enterprises across the US and Canada.

If you are successful in the interview process, we hire you and relocate you to Canada. We leverage our partnership with the Canadian Government to obtain Canadian work permits for you and your spouse within just four to six weeks.

You are contracted to work with the client company on an exclusive, long-term basis, from Canada.

You work in a state-of-the-art facility inspired by the best of what you find in Silicon Valley. You receive a top-tier salary, generous benefits, as well as perks like daily lunches and unlimited snacks and drinks.

Our incredible team supports you and your family as you settle in your new community. You and your spouse can become Canadian permanent residents in six to eight months and Canadian citizens in just three and a half years.
