We hire your talent as MobSquad employees.

// MobSquad + Canada

We leverage our partnership with the Canadian Government to quickly obtain Canadian work permits for your technology talent within just four to six weeks. We then relocate your talent to Canada.

We contract your talent back to your company. They work with you on an exclusive, long-term basis, nearshore from Canada.

They work in state-of-the-art facilities inspired by the best of what you find in Silicon Valley. They receive top-tier salaries, generous benefits, as well as perks like daily lunches and unlimited snacks and drinks.

Our incredible team supports all talent as they settle in their new community on their path to Canadian citizenship.
